With Gratitude

"Church Family, Thank you so much for all your love, prayers, and gifts during this difficult season of fighting my pancreatic cancer. You are carrying me on your prayers, and I feel your love lifting me up. God is working and doing good things in the lives of people in my life. He does work all things together for good! My surgery is coming up very soon. I ask you to please continue to pray diligently for me. It is a complex and serious operation. I love you all and look forward to coming back soon."
Love, Candace Sutherland
